GDPR Policy

The EU General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR") came into force on 25 May 2018.

The new Regulation aims to standardise data protection laws and processing across the EU, giving people greater rights to access and control their personal information.

Our Commitment

Greens Removals are committed to ensuring protection of all personal information that we hold, and to provide and to protect all such data. We recognise our obligations in updating and expanding this program to meet the requirements of GDPR.

Greens Removals are dedicated to safeguarding the personal information under our control and in maintaining a system that meets our obligations under the new regulations. Our practice is summarised below.

How We Prepared for GDPR

Greens Removals already have a consistent level of data protection and security across our organisation, but we have introduced new measures to ensure compliancy.

Information Audit — We carried out an audit of information previously held and ensured that it was compliant with the new regulations.

Policies and Procedures — we have revised data protection policies and procedures to meet the requirements and standards of the GDPR and any relevant data protection laws, including:

Data Protection – our main policy and procedure document for data protection has been revised to meet the standards and requirements of the GDPR. Accountability and governance measures are in place to ensure that we understand and adequately disseminate and evidence our obligations and responsibilities.

Data Retention and Erasure – we have revised our retention procedures to ensure that we meet the “data minimisation” and “storage limitation” principles and that personal information is stored, archived and destroyed in accordance with our obligations. We have procedures in place to meet the new “Right to Erasure” obligation.

Data Breaches – our procedures ensure that we have safeguards in place to identify, assess, investigate, and report any personal data breach as early as possible.

International Data Transfers and Third-Party Disclosures – where Greens Removals stores or transfers personal information outside the EU, we have robust procedures in place to secure the integrity of the data.

Subject Access Request (SAR) – we have revised our SAR procedures to accommodate the revised 30-day timeframe for providing the requested information.

Privacy – we have revised our Privacy procedures to comply with the GDPR, ensuring that all individuals whose personal information we process have been informed of why we need it, how it is used, what their rights are, who the information is disclosed to and what safeguarding measures are in place to protect their information.

Obtaining Consent – we have revised our consent mechanisms for obtaining personal data, ensuring that individuals understand what they are providing, why and how we use it and giving clear, defined ways to consent to us processing their information.

Direct Marketing where applicable – we have revised the wording and processes for direct marketing.

Information Security and Technical and Organisational Measures

Greens Removals takes the privacy and security of individuals and their personal information very seriously and take every reasonable measure to protect and secure the personal data that we process. We have robust information security policies and procedures in place to protect personal information from unauthorised access, alteration, disclosure, or destruction.

GDPR Roles and Employees

Greens Removals have designated our office Manager appointed to implement our roadmap for complying with the new data protection Regulation. The office Manager is responsible for promoting awareness of the GDPR across the organisation, assessing our GDPR compliance, identifying any gap areas and implementing the new policies, procedures, and measures.

Greens Removals understands that continuous employee awareness and understanding is vital to the continued compliance of the GDPR and have involved our employees in our preparation plan
